

Carleton College Resources

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Carleton College is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Office of Accessibility Resources (Class of 1974 Center, #119) is the campus office that collaborates with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g., mental health, attentional, learning, autism spectrum disorders, chronic health, traumatic brain injury and concussions, vision, hearing, mobility, or speech impairments), please contact OAR@carleton.edu to arrange a confidential discussion regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations.

Assistive Technologies: Technological Resources for Students

The Assistive Technologies program combines academic and technological resources to support student classroom and computing needs, especially for students with physical or learning disabilities.

Accessibility features include text-to-speech (Read&Write) and audio recording Smartpens like the Echo Smartpen. If you would like to know more, contact assistivetech@carleton.edu.

Library

The Gould Library is a great place to research, study, and discover books and resources to support you in this course. Search Catalyst to find and request library materials at Gould Library, St. Olaf Libraries, and beyond (through Interlibrary Loan), get help via chat 24/7 from any page on the library's website, email or call, or meet with a Reference Librarian. The building also has a variety of study spaces. Visit the Library website for hours, to book group study rooms, and for more information.

Math/Stats Tutoring

The Math/Stats Skills Center is a collaborative space where you can be part of a community working to expand conceptual and computational understanding in mathematics and statistics. With an emphasis on 100- and 200-level math and stats courses, peer tutors are available to help you build problem-solving skills and use tools such as R, LaTeX and Mathematica. The Math/Stats Skills Center offers drop-in tutoring and is located in the Center for Mathematics and Computing (CMC).

Speech & Presentation Coaching

A speech coach can help you practice and prepare for class presentations, comps talks, participation in class discussions, and speech-related events unrelated to coursework. The speech coach can work with you on tailoring your content for a particular audience, organization, clarity, persuasive impact, body language and eye contact, and dealing with stage fright. To request a meeting, visit the Speech & Presentation Coaching website.

Student Well-Being

Your health and well-being should always be your first priority. At Carleton, we have a wide array of resources to support students. It is important to recognize stressors you may be facing, which can be personal, emotional, physical, financial, mental, or academic. Sleep, exercise, and connecting with others can be strategies to help you flourish at Carleton. For more information, check out Student Health and Counseling (SHAC), the Office of Health Promotion, or the Office of the Chaplain.

Title IX

Carleton is committed to fostering an environment free of sexual misconduct. Please be aware all Carleton faculty and staff members, with the exception of Chaplains and SHAC staff, are “responsible employees.” Responsible employees are required to share any information they have regarding incidents of sexual misconduct with the Title IX Coordinator. Carleton’s goal is to ensure campus community members are aware of all the options available and have access to the resources they need. If you have questions, please contact Carleton’s Title IX Coordinator (titleix@carleton.edu) or visit the Title IX website.

Writing

The Writing Center

The Writing Center provides a space staffed with peer writing consultants who can work with you during any stage of the writing process (brainstorming to final proofreading). Hours and more information can be found on the writing center website. You can reserve specific times for conferences by using their online appointment system.

The Term-Long Program for Multilingual Writers

If you believe you might benefit from working regularly with a writing consultant this term, email Kristen Vogel, Coordinator of Multilingual Writing Support, at kvogel@carleton.edu. She can arrange once- or twice-a-week meetings between you and a specific writing consultant throughout the term.
